

ORANGE SUNRISE

a film by Peter Coonradt

Riverside Metropolitan Museum
3580 Mission Inn Ave., Riverside
(951) 826-5273
www.riversideca.gov/museum

Thursday
July 5, 2007
Riverside Arts Walk

6:30 pm
First Screening

7:30 pm
Conversation
with the Filmmaker

How can it be that the Inland Empire grows the best oranges in the world, but you can't find a local orange in your supermarket? Award winning Redlands filmmaker, Peter Coonradt, spent a year making ORANGE SUNRISE, a poetic and insightful film about the history and future of citrus in the Inland Empire.